

Programs and Partnerships at Green Hill School

Programming is an important part of Juvenile Rehabilitation (JR). The programs offered to young people are designed to foster growth and build skills. This makes sure that young people are empowered and build successful futures. To meet the needs of young people, JR offers a large range of programming.

The programs available may change.

MENTAL HEALTH AND TREATMENT PROGRAMS

Aggression Replacement Training

Provides young people with skills to control anger and moral reasoning.

SMART Substance Abuse Disorder Treatment

Young people have access to Substance Use Dependency (SUD) treatment.

Sexually Abusive Behavior Treatment

Treatment from a Certified Treatment Provider that works with young people convicted of a sexual offense.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Chehalis School District

Young people take classes. Class levels range from elementary school to high school level.

College Classes

Young people can take classes to earn an Associates of Arts (AA) and Applied Science Business Management degree. Classes through Centralia College also include high school level math.

Culture Barber Academy

Young people learn skills to get a Barber license.

CULTURAL AND GROUP PROGRAMS

LatinX

Young people learn about LatinX culture and take part in Temazcal.

Native Circle

Young people take part in Sweat Lodge Ceremonies, practice traditions, and join educational groups.

Asian Native Hawaiian Pacific Islander (ANHPI)

Young people learn about the diversity of ANHPI.

Ekwos Indo-European Cultural Group

Young people learn about Indo-European culture and social history.

Black Student Union

Young people learn about black culture and history.

CAREER PROGRAMS

MyJob

Young people in this program can explore different jobs, get job training, and receive counseling. They will also participate in hands-on or work-based learning.

RECREATION PROGRAMMING

Green Hill School Literary Magazine

A Green Hill School Literary magazine. This provides an opportunity for high school credit for eligible students. It also provides employment opportunities to work as magazine staff.

Delivered Fitness

Young people become certified personal trainers.

Washington State Department of
CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

RECREATION PROGRAMMING Continued

Emerging Leaders Committee

Young people work with the Coalition for Juvenile Justice to create positive changes in juvenile justice reform.

Alive & Free

Young people work with instructors to build their relationships and life skills.

The Bridge Music Project

Young people write, record, and perform original music. They can also work on podcasts.

Capitol Classroom

Young people work with lobbyists to make positive impacts on the juvenile justice system.

Studio/Creative Writing

Music class for young people that want to learn studio equipment. The program also has creative writing sessions.

Prolific Success

The program focuses on empowerment, managing behavior, and meeting expectations. Young people will also learn how to find a job, goal planning, housing stability, and income.

Partnership Council on Juvenile Justice (PCJJ)

Young people work with PCJJ to build community connections and update the council on capitol classroom and youth voice work.

Racial Equity & Social Justice (RESJ)

Young people work with RESJ staff to talk about ways to increase social equity and justice and embrace diversity.

MENTORING

Made Men

The M.A.D.E Men program supports young men who benefit from peer mentorship.

ReSet

Mentoring with support for young people engaged in gangs. The program works with young people to see themselves as more than their gang identity.

NW Credible Messengers

Through structured group discussions, engaging activities, and individualized peer mentorship, young people foster meaningful connections, and navigate their path toward personal transformation.

Pathways to Transformation and Success

Helps young people plan for their future and positive growth.

RELIGIOUS PROGRAMS

Jehovah's Witness Chaplaincy and Bible Study

Bible study group for Jehovah's Witness.

Sufism

Twice a month Sufi education, experiential prayer, chanting, and music.

Taaleem (virtual Muslim education)

Virtual Muslim education for students of Islam.

Taaleem (Muslim education)

Quarterly Muslim education for students of Islam, group prayer, and feast.

Tacoma Youth for Christ

Christian religious and mentoring services for young people that have a previous connection to Pierce County.

King County Youth Chaplaincy

Christian religious and mentoring services for young people that have a previous connection to the King County Juvenile Detention Center and Echo Glen Children's Center.

Roman Catholic Chaplaincy

Guidance for young people through Roman Catholic religious services

JOB TRAINING AND VOCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Trades Education and Pre-Apprenticeship (TEPA)

Young people explore careers in construction. Young people earn their Forklift, OSHA 10, and Flaggers certifications.

Welding

Young people learn skills to pass the Washington Association of Building Officials (WABO) certification to become a certified welder. Offered as a Centralia college class.

If you would like free copies of this publication in an alternative format or language, please contact DCYF Constituent Relations at 1-800-723-4831 or email communications@dcyf.wa.gov.

DCYF PUBLICATION JR_0107 (10-2025)