Introductions & Check-In

Name

Pronouns (optional)

Organization

What music were you listening to when you were 18?

Shared Agreements for Engagement

Seek to understand and be understood. Avoid acronyms, use plain and accessible language.

Respect the privacy of anyone sharing their lived experience.

The degree to which we focus on engaging well is the degree to which we make good decisions.

Create and support flexible options for participation.

Close decisions and follow up. Identify necessary actions and follow through.

Be solutions-oriented. If you identify a problem, try to also offer a solution.

Panel Discussion

Breakout Discussions

Reflecting on the panel discussion...

Identify one element of the juvenile system that is absent from the adult system and that we want to prioritize for emerging and young adults. Why is this element important for emerging and young adults?

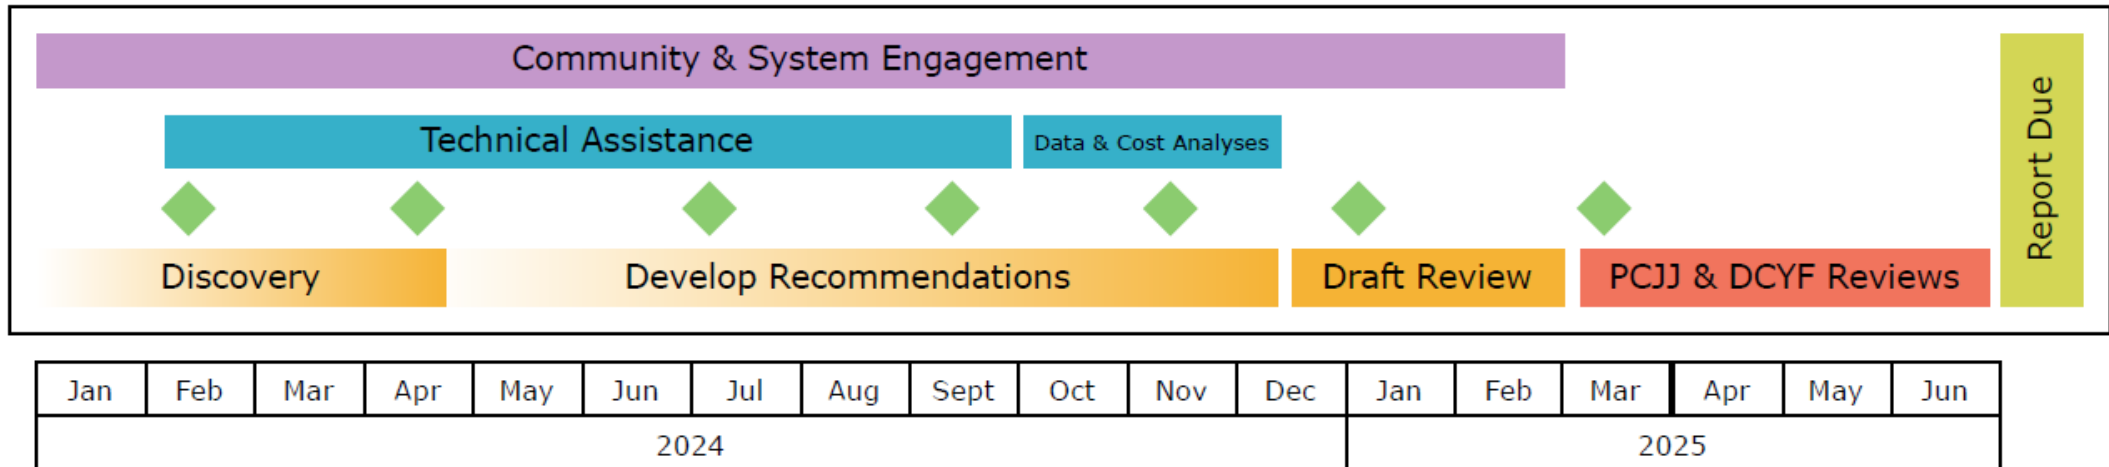

Full Group Discussion
