Project Goals

DCYF goals for SFL are:

1. Reduce rates of child maltreatment
2. Reduce rates of foster care entry
3. Increase community resilience
4. Develop a replicable community-driven prevention model

Washington State Department of CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

What other “unstated” goals do you have for this group/project? What is bringing you to the table?

- To ensure that families have access to resources and opportunities, to achieve the other stated goals
- To deepen partnerships with our community stakeholders – to be more collaborative with the other organizations who can provide resources and help families
- To get schools and parents involved in raising awareness about child protection and abuse prevention
- To be a resource to the other agencies at the table – to provide connected resources along the continuum of care
- To develop a strategic plan that we can use to plug in other funding sources and opportunities as they arise
- Strengthen capacity and scope of services in the community
- Development of a "no wrong door" point of entry for families into the delivery system
- Increase literacy of community members
- Establish a regular marketing campaign to community members
- Training for providers
